In the 21st century, the style trends of the fashion industry dominate the world more than they ever did, and control not only the way people dress but also trends in home design, makeup, tattoos and people's overall attitudes. In the 19th century, power did not only mean: Sans and Lunica, it summed up the whole attitude of a generation, and this is even more pronounced today.

In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry dominate the world more than they ever did, and control not only the way people dress but also trends in home décor, makeup fashion and people's overall attitudes. In the 80s flower power did not only mean flowers and tanks, it represented the whole attitude of a generation, and this is even more prominent today.

In the 21st century the style trends of the fashion industry dominate the world more than they ever did, and control not only the way people dress but also, to some extent, the way they think. In the 19th century, however, people's dress and their attitudes were more closely linked. In the 20th century, however, people's dress and their attitudes were more closely linked. In the 21st century, however, people's dress and their attitudes are more closely linked.
