The roots of the salwar kameez can be traced back to the Mughal era, a period of opulence and grandeur in India's history. While the Mughals introduced many cultural elements, including architecture and cuisine, they also played a pivotal role in shaping the subcontinent's fashion landscape. The Mughal emperors' courts became breeding grounds for fashion innovation, where intricate garments were created, and the fusion of Persian and Indian styles led to the birth of the salwar kameez.
