The LimeLight

The celebrations come to a standstill when you stride in because you are in the limelight

This advertisement features a woman in a pink and white ensemble. The top image shows her sitting on stone steps in a historical setting, wearing a pink long-sleeved kurta with white embroidery and a white dupatta with pink borders. The bottom image shows her standing in the same outfit. The background consists of stone pillars and a dome. The text 'The LimeLight' is prominently displayed, along with a quote: 'The celebrations come to a standstill when you stride in because you are in the limelight'. The entire advertisement is framed with a decorative border of gold stars and floral motifs.

Illuminated by the world around you these diamonds are also dressed in garments which never fade with time with trends with faith
